【参考范文】

Dear John,

I'm so pleased to receive your email. I feel excited to know you dream of becoming a professional football player. I am looking forward to seeing an international football star, John.

As for me, teaching is my dream job. The reason for this is that I would like to share my knowledge with my students and help them solve problems. Besides, the school's environment appeals to me and staying with students helps to keep me young and alive. To realize my dream, I have to make full use of spare time to acquire the essential knowledge and enter a normal university.

What efforts are you making for your dream and who is your favorite football player?

Yours
